吳玳誼

Toi-Yee Doris Ng's art practice explores identity politics and their relationships with power dynamics, social structure and sense of self. Her performative installation emphasises visual and spatial elements employing intimate, erratic and domestic materiality. Toi-Yee is currently based in HART Haus studio, Hong Kong. She obtained her MA from Central Saint Martins and BFA from RMIT University and Hong Kong Art School. She has been awarded the 1a Space Award, Boon Lee Award, Dean's List Award from RMIT, Reaching Out Award from HKSAR Government SPSS. Toi-Yee also works extensively in art and cultural community projects with The Lok Sin Tong Benevolent Society Hong Kong, Hong Kong Planner Institute, K11 MUSEA Nature Discovery Park etc. Her work has been exhibited at Hong Kong Arts Centre, K11 Chi Art Space (Hong Kong), Tung Nam Lou Art Hotel, PRÉCÉDÉE Art Space etc.
